

Mining Indaba 2011: Global Networking

5 000 individuals representing more than 800 international companies and 40 plus government and quasi-government delegations; sponsoring companies representing an estimated collective market value of $1 trillion (2010): Investing in Africa Mining Indaba is the world's largest gathering of mining's most influential stakeholders and decision-makers vesting in African mining. This year's Indaba, held in February at the Cape Town Convention Centre, gave RRL a chance to expound its sustainable wealth creation strategies which aim to benchmark RRL world-wide and increase the company's global footprint within the next ten years.
